BOYS 9 - 11

GIRLS 9 - 11

BOYS 12 - 14

GIRLS 12 - 14

Registration fee and method of payment

Participation in the Children's NESS City Triathlon is free of charge, but the parent or legal guardian of the child is obligated to register the child online or register in person on the day of the event, if the set limit of 60 children is not already sold out.

Method of measuring and results

The organizer is responsible for compiling the start and results documents; processing the results is done manually, without the use of electronic chips. All participating children start the first discipline (swimming) at once in a collective start. After swimming, they then go immediately to the children's depot, where they take their bicycle (parental help is permitted here) and set off for 1 lap of the large circle in the City Park. After cycling, they return the bicycle to the depot and continue in the running discipline for 500 m on the smaller circle in the City Park. The organizer will make the results public immediately after completion of the race.
